Good(night) Moons Rising

The classic children's book Goodnight Moon by Margaret Wise Brown has excellent illustrations by Clement Hurd. Notice the location of the moon in the great green room's window. The clocks--on the mantle and on the nightstand--advance in 10-minute increments as the full moon rises appropriately in the evening.

7:10 p.m.	7:20 p.m.	7:30 p.m.	7:40 p.m.	8:00 p.m.	8:10 p.m.

Two clocks show the passage of time.

Meanwhile, the painting over the fireplace of the cow jumping over the moon accurately portrays a waxing crescent moon setting in the evening sky.

Throughout the story the moon segues through its phases in the proper order. (However, it does error in showing the waxing crescent just after sunset. See More Faux Phases.)
