Cosmos Benefits AstroCamp

Cosmos: A SpaceTime Odyssey will premiere at Fiddler's Hearth Public House on March 9, 2014, with proceeds from donations going to benefit AstroCamp. Hosted by Neil deGrasse Tyson, the 13-episode series explores what original Cosmos author Carl Sagan described as "all that is, or ever was, or ever will be."

Prior to the showing, members of the Michiana Astronomical Society Inc. (MAS) will set up telescopes, weather permitting, outside Fiddler's Hearth at 127 North Main Street in South Bend, IN. The primary target after sunset will be Jupiter and its moons. C'mon downtown and talk about AstroCamp, then join other inquisitive viewers of "the story of us."

See details at <http://www.nightwise.org/blog/cosmos/>.

Tickets available online or call 574-232-2853 to reserve your seat. A recommended donation is $10 for adults. Includes complimentary munchie buffet provided by Fiddler's Hearth.
