

First Midnight South Bend 1865

All through the night the stars appear to move slowly around the North Star, called Polaris. The star Eltanin in the head of Draco the Dragon is about 150 light years away. The light that left Eltanin in 1865, traveling at 186,000 miles per second, is just now reaching South Bend!

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF LIGHT
2015

